with rod antenna.

Soldiers who wore black-bordered black epaulets were seen near Eugen Kaserne, in the yard of which 3 trucks, 2 amphibious jeeps and one pontoon truck were parked. Six 85-mm AA guns were observed under lean-to-roofs of Rainer Kaserne. A total of 16 trucks, 3 van-like trucks and 2 tank trucks were seen in those garages of the installation where the doors were open. Individual Soviet civilians and military patrols led by Soviet officers were seen in the town. There was no change in the status of Camp Spratzern. Motor vehicles seen at the latter installation included:

3. On 29 July, an Austrian doctor who spoke Russian was told by a Soviet officer stationed at St. Poelten that the Soviet troops withdrawn from Austria would be demobilized in the USSR and subsequently sent to a camp for retraining. At Doellersheim, the dependents of Soviet soldiers had to turn in all articles bought in Austria.

4. In June and July, Soviet women at Bruck on the Leitha river sold items of furniture and bicycles to the Austrian population, because [redacted] they were not allowed to take these things with them to the USSR. 25X1

1. [redacted] Comment. This information tends to indicate that the units of the 95th Gds Motz Rifle Div were still at St. Poelten and that there was no change in their status. All the motor vehicles mentioned belonged to this division. 25X1

2. [redacted] Comment. It appears that the 233d Gun Howitzer Arty Regt of the 95th Gds Motz Rifle Div was still stationed at Melk during the reported period. 25X1
